Mr. Sidney Rittenberg is the president of Rittenberg Associates, Inc. Since 1986, he has been a senior advisor to major American and international corporations doing business in China. His clients have included AIG, Intel, Nextel, Teledesic, Digital Equipment, ARCO, Hughes Aircraft, ICO, Pricewaterhouse-Coopers, Ford, Nintendo USA, Trammell Crow, Prudential Insurance (UK), Levi Strauss, Hershey, United Conveyers, Dan Rather (CBS News), Billy Graham and Family, USIS, etc. He has been a partner in the consulting firms Index Group and Kamsky & Rittenberg. He was the Vice Chairman for Asia at Computerland Corporation.

Mr. Rittenberg lived and worked in China for 35 years. He worked with Mao Zedong (founder of the People's Republic of China) and was a friend of the late Premier Zhou Enlai. He was close enough to the late premier Deng Xiaoping to persuade him to agree to his first television interview with a Westerner: Mike Wallace of "60 Minutes." He maintains close relationships with people in high places in Beijing as well as in Washington D.C.

Mr. Rittenberg graduated from the University of North Carolina and attended postgraduate studies at Stanford University. He is a Director of the Washington State China Relations Council, a member of Rotary Club International, and a visiting professor of China studies at Pacific Lutheran University.

The program will open with a webcast from Washington, D.C., featuring Kurt M. Campbell, Assistant Secretary of State for East Asian and the Pacific Affairs, discussing U.S.-China relations. National Committee president Stephen A. Orlins will moderate this 45-minute portion of the program, comprised of a 15-minute talk followed by half an hour during which Mr. Campbell will respond to questions emailed in from audience members throughout the country. Following the webcast, Mr. Rittenberg will speak and lead the discussion among our attendees.
